

WOMEN'S FICTION WRITERS ASSOCIATION SELECTS CAMILLE PAGÁN AS 2022-23 GUIDING SCRIBE

September 19, 2022, Washington DC: The Women's Fiction Writers Association (WFWA) is excited to announce bestselling fiction author, Camille Pagán as the association's 2022-2023 Guiding Scribe.

Camille Pagán is the #1 Amazon Charts bestselling author of 9 novels, a certified coach to aspiring to established authors, and a journalist who has written for Forbes, The New York Times, O: The Oprah Magazine, Real Simple, Time, and many others.

"The Guiding Scribe provides coaching, craft, and encouragement for our members," says Jacki Kelly, WFWA President. "Camille's stories embody a deep emotional core and delve into what she describes as life's big questions. Her work resonates with the writing heart of women's fiction."

As Guiding Scribe, Camille will make her first appearance at WFWA's 2022 retreat in Albuquerque, New Mexico, providing the keynote address to this year's STAR and Rising STAR awards ceremony for the best book and unpublished manuscript of the year.

"I believe story is one of the primary ways we make sense of life. And personally, nothing moves me more than a novel about a protagonist's emotional response to a human experience—which is what women's fiction does best. I'm honored to serve as Guiding Scribe for an organization that elevates women and marginalized writers, and I look forward to connecting with the writing community at large in this role."

Additionally, Camille will provide a regular dose of cheerleading through craft and industry-related articles, throughout the year to the WFWA community. You can learn about her online at <https://camillepagan.com>
